Mr. Sickles continues in his old quarters. It is probable that he will not be removed to deal, for there are pallating circumstances which we will see to characterise my litters memory to the memory of confinement as unseconderly and assured to the confinement of confinement as unseconderly and assured the confinement of confinement

The mother of Mr. Sickies is seriously ill from grief.

John Gray, (colored,) owner of the house in which it is ulleged first Sickies was in the labit of meeting Key, has published a card relative in the to the matter, in which a states, among other things, that he rented the house to Mr. Key on the 28th of November, 1882. That he did then on the representation of Mr. Key that he wanted it for a gentleman named Wright, of Massechnesia. Gray further states that he was sever in the house but once after he result it to Mr. Key, about three weeks afterward, and that his object in going then was to "make a fire," on the supposition that Mr. Wright had arrived and would need one.

Mrs. Sickies will prebably leave for New York to morrow. She will be accompanied by her parents. She goes thither a broken-hearted woman.

It is now rumored that Mr. Rutterworth is to be arrested and examined for his alleged participation in the tragedy.

Since the end occurrences of last Sunday, much has been said of the friendship which existed between Mr. Sickies and the late Mr. Key up to distribute the supposition of the friendship which existed between Mr. Sickies and the late Mr. Key up to distribute the supplicant for the office of Destrict Attorney, he found in Mr. Sickies a warm and stending thereof parents for the office of Destrict Attorney, he found in Mr. Sickies a warm and attending character; and this, together with other evidences of mattail good feeling, has given rise, in connection with the tuthappy affair, to ne inconsiderable amount of discussion.

His business, at first limited, soon grew on his hands; and not many years elapsed before he found himself the possessor of fooks and herds more numerous than those which accompanied the wanderings of the patriarcha of old. For twalve or fities years, he stalled 5,000 to 5,000 head of steers, and "handled." as he terms it, 8,000 to 9,000 head of arms. I kince the beginning of his operations in this State he has reduced 30,000 acres of land to cultivation, more than half of which is contained in his two principal arms—one of 7,500 and the other of 10,000 acres. One of his oorn-fields in Morgan county is nearly six miles in length. Latterly, feeling the increachments of age, he has been restripting his business to a more manageable limit, and has converted much of his real estate into cash or interest-paying mortinges. He does sot now keep over 100 looses or employ more than 100 to 150 men.

It must be so—dismissed such scenes cannot be—the red ray will be in all the light of the feature. An engineer on one of our railways had, without fault of his own, run the trumendous power under his control over a human being. The body was removed from the rail, death had done his dread work, examination was made of the circumstances, and the engineer acquitted—the homiside was not in him. Yet, a little while afterward, that engineer came to the Superintendent, and saked to resign his place—he could not endure it any longer.
